

The Organizational Decision Landscape

For Professional Knowledge Workers: Organizational Thought Excellence, Decision Making and other Core Subjects

The Organizational Decision Landscape provides a conceptual framework that you can use to position yourself in your organization. Various role players invariably have different goals and therefore focus areas in their decision making responsibilities. Make sure you excel in what your focus should be, and learn about the focus areas you are aspiring to reach.

Find out more about our Interactive, Online Course in Organizational Decision Making 001A
Request a free ebook describing this Framework by completing the Online Request Form

